code of ethics

The Bracco Group Code of Ethics outlines a set of principles, rights, duties and responsibilities that all Recipients must comply with.

This document has been prepared in accordance with compliance guidelines and control standards coming from both self-regulation and specific legislation, including international regulations.

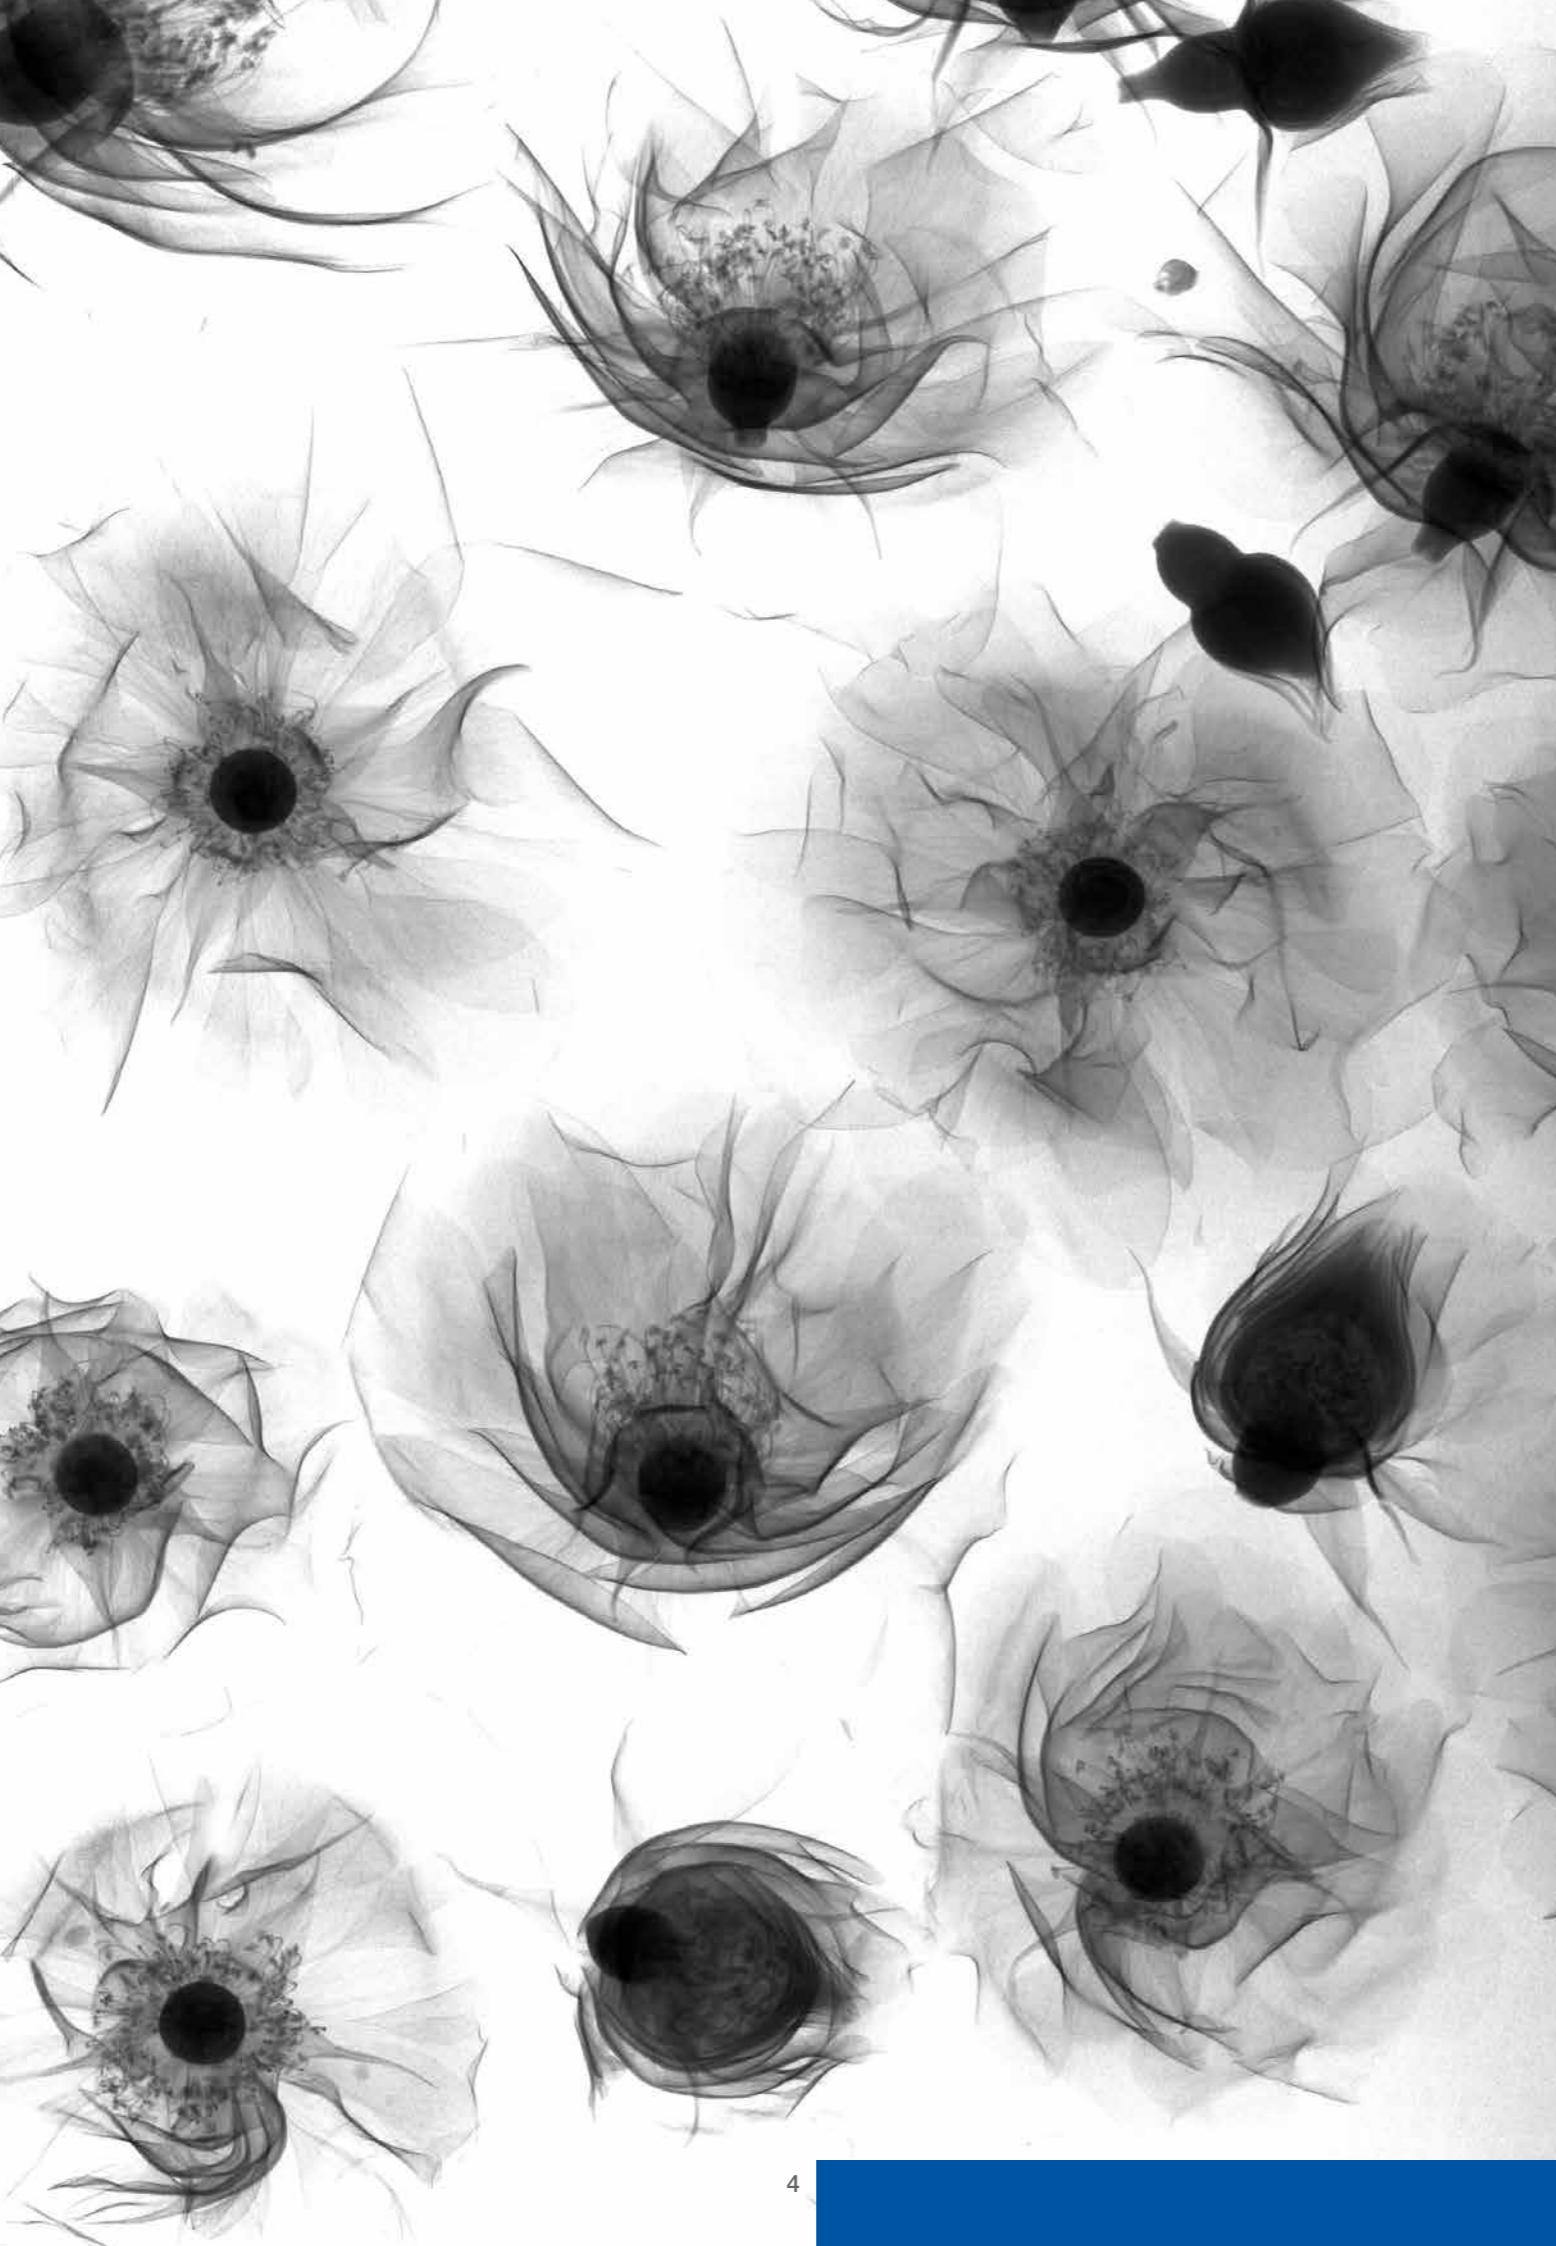

Each company of the Bracco Group can define additional rules to adapt the document to its needs, the local social context and legislative and regulatory framework. In any case, any additional obligations set forth shall not override the principles established by law and this document.

Definitions: "Company" or "Bracco Group" include all wholly-owned entities and affiliates of the Bracco Group for the purpose of this Code of Ethics. "Recipient(s)" include all directors, employees (at all levels), collaborators and business partners (suppliers, contractors, consultants, agents, distributors) as well as everyone working for or in the name and on behalf of the Bracco Group.

Social responsibility is one of the Bracco Group's founding principles, and lies at the heart of our way of operating and our business philosophy. This has made our family-run company stronger and more dependable over time.

Diana Bracco
President and CEO of the Bracco Group

“Our goal: to be a strong and financially sustainable company that places the needs of patients at the forefront of our mission, providing high quality products and innovative quality standard solutions, managing business ethically and fairly.”

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

CSR is a part of Bracco's system of founding values, and has always been sustained and pursued in its company approach and enterprising policy.

In today's business environment, it is important to find the right balance among economic, social and environmental priorities: carefully orchestrated CSR strategy is vital to the long-term success of our organization. A CSR strategy is most effective when aligned and integrated with existing strategic initiatives and coordinated with an intelligent approach to the related risks and rewards. For us this means to engage all the internal corporate functions and to have a special commitment to all the stakeholders' needs and priorities.

Nowadays, Bracco Group is highly focused on embedding corporate responsibility into business activities wherever it operates by delivering long-term sustainable values to the companies themselves and its stakeholders.

Bracco takes into consideration stakeholders' interests and necessities in its strategy, policies and everyday activities.

It cares about the impacts (positive and negative) generated on the economic, environmental and societal spheres:

Economic sustainability

transparency and responsible business, patient health and safety, building trusted partnerships with healthcare professionals in advancing the practice of medicine, quality of products and services, responsible management of supply chain, data protection, digital innovation, research and development.

Environmental sustainability

reduction of direct and indirect environmental impacts, regarding energy consumption, emissions, water and waste, environmental protection and sustainable packaging.

Social sustainability

promotion of equality, diversity, welfare and well-being for employees and collaborators, workplace health and safety, talent development, local community involvement, health culture promotion.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

The Bracco Group abides by and strictly observes the laws and regulations in force in all countries in which it operates and shares the principles enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the fundamental conventions of the International Labour Organization (ILO). It is therefore the duty of all employees to respect this set of rules and to know and respect all parts of this Code of Ethics.

■ CORPORATE INTEGRITY

Honesty

Our Policy: to ensure full compliance with the regulations in force in the countries where the Bracco Group operates.

Your Role: You will conduct honestly in pursuing Bracco Group's interest.

Reputation

Our Policy: The Bracco Group considers the reputation and sustainability of its products as essential for its future development.

Your Role: Under no circumstance will the pursuit of Bracco's interests justify any violation of company policies or any misconduct in your capacity as recipient of the document.

Integrity and Fight against Corruption

Our Policy: The Bracco Group does not accept or tolerate corruption of any kind.

Your Role: In conducting business, you must make a commitment to adhere to the highest standards of moral integrity and must act with transparency, honesty, fairness and good faith in accordance with national and international laws in the fight against corruption.

Human Rights

Our Policy: All Bracco Group activities are based on the respect of internationally recognised human rights.

Your Role: If you suspect any human rights violation, speak up and report your concern to allow the Bracco Group to investigate the matter.

Fight against organized crime and terrorism

Our Policy: The Bracco Group will refrain from any relationship whatsoever, with persons or entities known or suspected to be involved in criminal activities of any kind and organizations with ties to human trafficking, exploitation of child labour or terrorist activities.

Competition

Our Policy: The Bracco Group is committed to fully respecting the rules governing competition and laws protecting the consumers.

Your Role: You must not enter into any agreement with competitors in violation of competition law, in particular on pricing or bidding; in addition, you must not provide any commercial information to competitors.

Quality

Our Policy: Bracco Group Quality Management System is designed to exceed compliance requirements, to support, measure and continuously improve processes and activities with ethics and integrity.

Your Role: Each employee owns Quality. Beyond compliance, you are responsible to embed Quality in everything you do.

Environmental Protection

Our Policy: All Bracco Group activities are managed in compliance with existing environmental legislation, and through Bracco's dedicated HSE Department (Health, Safety & Environment).

The Bracco Group actively contributes to the promotion of scientific and technological development to improve environmental protection and the conservation of resources and develops employee awareness of environmental impact.

The Company also manages its business activities while respecting the environment and public health, using the best available technologies for the protection of the environment and natural resources, including production methods and technologies aimed at reducing waste.

Your Role: You should adopt responsible behaviour and comply with the Company's policies on this matter.

■ STANDARDS OF BEHAVIOR

Transparency in business transactions

Our Policy: The Bracco Group requires full transparency in commercial transactions and provides adequate control against any kind of money laundering and receiving of stolen goods.

Your Role: You must follow Bracco's procedures to assess the legitimacy of the activities of potential business partners. You should also pay attention to business transactions involving receipt or transfer of money or other benefits before establishing any kind of business relationship.

Traceability

Our Policy: The Bracco Group requires full traceability for data having impact on regulated activities.

Your Role: The Bracco Group requires each Recipient to keep suitable records of all transactions so that the underlying reasons for and actual performance of these can be checked. This relates both to the authorization and the performance, recording and verification stages.

Management of gifts and free services

Your Role: Gifts, benefits or free services may be offered to private individuals but only if they do not exceed the thresholds set by the regulations in the country in which you operate or, if more stringent, your country of origin.

In line with this principle, it is forbidden to solicit or accept directly or indirectly, money, gifts or favours, offered by third parties, except where these are of limited value. Otherwise, it must be declined. If returning a gift would offend the giver, or the circumstances under which it was given preclude its return, you should promptly notify the department manager.

Conflicts of Interest

Your Role: In your capacity as an employee or collaborator of the Company, you must not use the name "Bracco" for personal gain, and avoid activities that conflict with the interests of the Company. This includes without limitation, participating in business decisions with companies, or institutions in which you or a family member have an interest, as such decisions could result in improper gain for you or your family member.

PROTECTING INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The Bracco Group is aware of the value of its intangible assets and of the personal data that the Company is entrusted with, and has procedures in place to protect them.

Every employee has a responsibility to comply with these procedures

to safeguard these assets.

▲ INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Protection of Intellectual Property

Our Policy: The Bracco Group ensures the protection and the defence of its intellectual property assets, including its patents, designs, trademarks, domain names, copyrights, trade secrets and other knowledge, as they represent valuable competitive advantages. The Bracco Group also recognizes and respects third parties intellectual property rights.

Your Role: You ensure that the Company intellectual property rights are protected by refraining from communicating on ongoing projects without the proper authorisations, respecting the Company procedures for the protection of intellectual property, and reporting any misappropriations or fraudulent use of which you are aware.

Confidential Information

Your Role: Any information acquired through your relationship with the Company is confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties in any way, including family members, except in the case of information already in the public domain. You must treat the information you have access to according to the procedures established by the Company.

▲ ACCOUNTING

Accounting Records

Our Policy: The Bracco Group's accounting records are kept according to the principles of transparency, truthfulness, completeness, accuracy and compliance with applicable laws.

Your Role: You must ensure that each transaction is supported by adequate documentation, enabling easy accounting and the identification of responsibility, and allow free access to internal and external auditors to the data and documents needed to carry out their activities.

Management of payments

Our Policy: The Bracco Group strives to conduct business only with business partners and customers with legitimate activities and does not accept funds from illegitimate sources.

Your Role: You must follow the Company's procedures in place to prevent money laundering, such as "Know your Customer/Supplier" procedures and policies regarding acceptable forms of payment both made and received.

Tax Management

Our Policy: The Bracco Group complies with the tax regulations of the countries in which it conducts its activities, and follows international tax principles to manage cross border transactions.

Your Role: Should you have any issue related to tax in the context of your work for the Bracco Group, contact the local person in charge of tax matters in the company at which you undertake your activities.

▲ DATA PROTECTION AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Privacy

Our Policy: The Bracco Group implements requirements for the protection and safeguarding of personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage taking into account the state of the art, the costs of implementation and the nature, scope, context and purposes of processing as well as the risk of varying likelihood and severity for the rights and freedoms of natural persons through the enforcement of suitable technical and organizational measures in line with applicable laws and regulations.

Your Role: You should take care of the personal data your Company is entrusted with as if they were your own, in particular by wondering whether processing these data is necessary for the Company's legitimate purposes. You should comply and be able to demonstrate compliance with the Company's data protection policies and consult with the person in charge of privacy both at the time of the determination of the means for processing and at the time of the processing itself.

RELATIONS WITH STAFF

The Bracco Group believes that human resources are a key factor for the successful development of the Group over time and is committed to creating all the conditions needed to ensure the advancement of employees' skills and expertise, to achieve corporate goals. Company employees, in pursuit of business objectives, must use both the tangible and intangible resources made available to them, in an effective, efficient and economical manner, in accordance with this Code of Ethics.
